The Roads leading from Dublin, are measured from His Majesty's Castle Gate, to the Market House of every Town; and the Cross Roads from the Market House of one Town to another: The Lists of the Stages, at the Top of the Pages, show the distance from one Stage to another; also the Distance from Dublin, or the Place, where the Road is measured from. The Index points out the Pages where the Roads are laid down, with the distances in Irish Miles, and also in British Statute Miles. with the County in which every Town lies.

Rates of Posting:— For a Chaise & Pair p. Mile 1s. 1d. for a Chaise & four 1s. 8d. and for a Saddle Horse A Pence.

Eleven Irish Miles are equal to Fourteen British. And one Shilling and one Penny Irish Currency, is one British Shilling.

The Authors beg leave to assure their very Respectable and numerous Subscribers, and the Publick, that they have done their utmost endeavours to procure the proper names of Places; but if any mistakes are, (tho' they wish them to be few, and of little importance) entreat they may be ascribed to ye true cause, that is, the difficulty of obtaining proper information, and the arbitrary manner of writing them: That as it is their duty, in gratitude to a People, to whom they owe the greatest favours, so it is their utmost desire to give satisfaction in every particular, and will always consider it their highest honour, if they have in any measure succeeded.

DESCRIPTIVE PARTICULARS.

This lot consists of part of the Lands of Morristown, containing 53A 3R 0P; part of the Lands of Forenaghts Upper, containing 264A 1R 2P; and part of the Lands of Upper, containing 1A 2R 37P, being in the whole 319A 3R 39P statute measure or thereabouts; all in the possession of the owner, and estimated by Mr Berry, of Dublin, at the annual value of £729 15 0, and is subject to the sum of £9 17 0, annual tithe rent charge, payable to the Church Commissioners.

The lot forms a very handsome Demesne, for the most part laid in. The land is of prime quality, mostly in fine pasture, conveniently divided, and tastefully planted with a large quantity of full grown ornamental and valuable timber, having approaches from either extremity, with handsome Gates and Lodges. The Dwelling-house on this lot is large and commodious, containing entrance Hall, Billiard-room, Parlour, Drawing-room, and Library, with nine Bed-rooms, with appropriate apartments for Servants, and with every accommodation suited to a gentleman's residence.

The Kitchen Yard has all the requisites for a large establishment, with an abundant supply of fresh water flowing through it. The Offices are extensive and commodious, comprising Stabling for twelve horses, Coach-houses, Hay Lofts, Piggeries, Cattle Sheds, and all other out buildings suitable for a gentleman's residence and large farm. The Garden is well stocked and fully cropped, in the best condition, and stocked with a choice collection of Fruit Trees, and contains a Grape-house and Green-house. There is also an excellent Lime-stone quarry on the lands, also an ice house, with house for herd and labourer.

The lot is situate within 13 miles of Dublin, adjoining the Village of Johnstown, in a peaceful country, surrounded by gentlemen's seats, and 2 miles from the post towns of Naas and Sallins—the former the Assizes town of the county, the latter a principal station on the Great Southern and Western Railway. It is the centre of the Kildare hunting country, besides being within easy distance of the Kilkenny, Meath, and Dublin districts, and within one mile of the Curragh.

There is a quarry of excellent Limestone on this lot, consisting of pure marble, similar to Kilkenny marble, capable of a very high polish, from which some of the chimney-pieces in the Dwelling-houses have been wrought, and which could be made a source of considerable profit.

Rentals and further particulars apply at the Landed Estates Court, Inns quay, in the city of Dublin; or to ARCHIBALD H. GODDARD and SON, Solicitors for the Owner, having carriage of Sale, No 17 North George's street, Dublin.

"The Master of the Wards, The Chief Baron & myself hold it fittest to make choice of Sir John Brown (of Hospital) as Guardian to the Lord Burgh (Bourke), being his Uncle & a protestant. The young Lord is a well disposed child, hath by my advice been already settled in the College above this year, under the government of my own Son's Tutor; his grandfather & two brothers were slain in the service of the Crown, his House not tainted with any disloyalty during all the last rebellions, & deserves to be look'd unto & cared for the more in that regard. So long as I serve in this place I will keep some watch, god willing, myself, both upon his education & estate & when time serves become an humble Suitor to His Majesty something (which shall be no loss to the Crown) may be done rather for him than others, whereby to restore the broken & weak condition of his Noble family. The House god knows as it is now become small, or rather nothing left to support the Honour with.

DESCRIPTIVE PARTICULARS.

The estates now offered for sale present two primary divisions, the first comprising 3352A 3R 13P fee-farm estate, producing a net rental of £541 16s 3d, arising from lands valued by the Ordnance at £1441 9s net. The second, or fee-simple estate, comprising 2612A 2R 20¾P, with a net rental of £1107 5s 7½d, and valued by the Ordnance at £1417 5s net.

Both these divisions are situate in the barony of Upper and Lower Tulla, and lie within an area of six miles by seven in three divisions, slightly detached, the most southern of which is within four miles of the Railway Station at Six-Mile Bridge, and the most northern within two miles of Scariff; the western portion being within a mile of Tulla, and the eastern within two miles of Broadford. A complete network of roads unite the several portions to each other, and afford ample facilities for communication with the fair and market towns of the country.

Probably in no part of the county, nor in Ireland, is there a district more capable of improvement from its great natural fertility, and the peculiarity of its physical features. Situate in the limestone formation, it forms part of the great alluvial basin, which rests upon the slopes of the Slievebernagh Mountains, which shelter it from the east, and which is watered by innumerable rivers and streams, and by several very considerable lakes, some of the most considerable of which either lie within or upon the boundaries of the estate.

Independent of its being upon the lower limestone formation, every townland of the estate is covered, more or less, with limestone, drift, or corn-gravel, which, in an economic view, must be regarded as of immense importance, not only as yielding a rich herbage, but as constituting one of the most valuable elements for the reclamation of tracts of Bog Allu-vium, which abound in this part of the county.

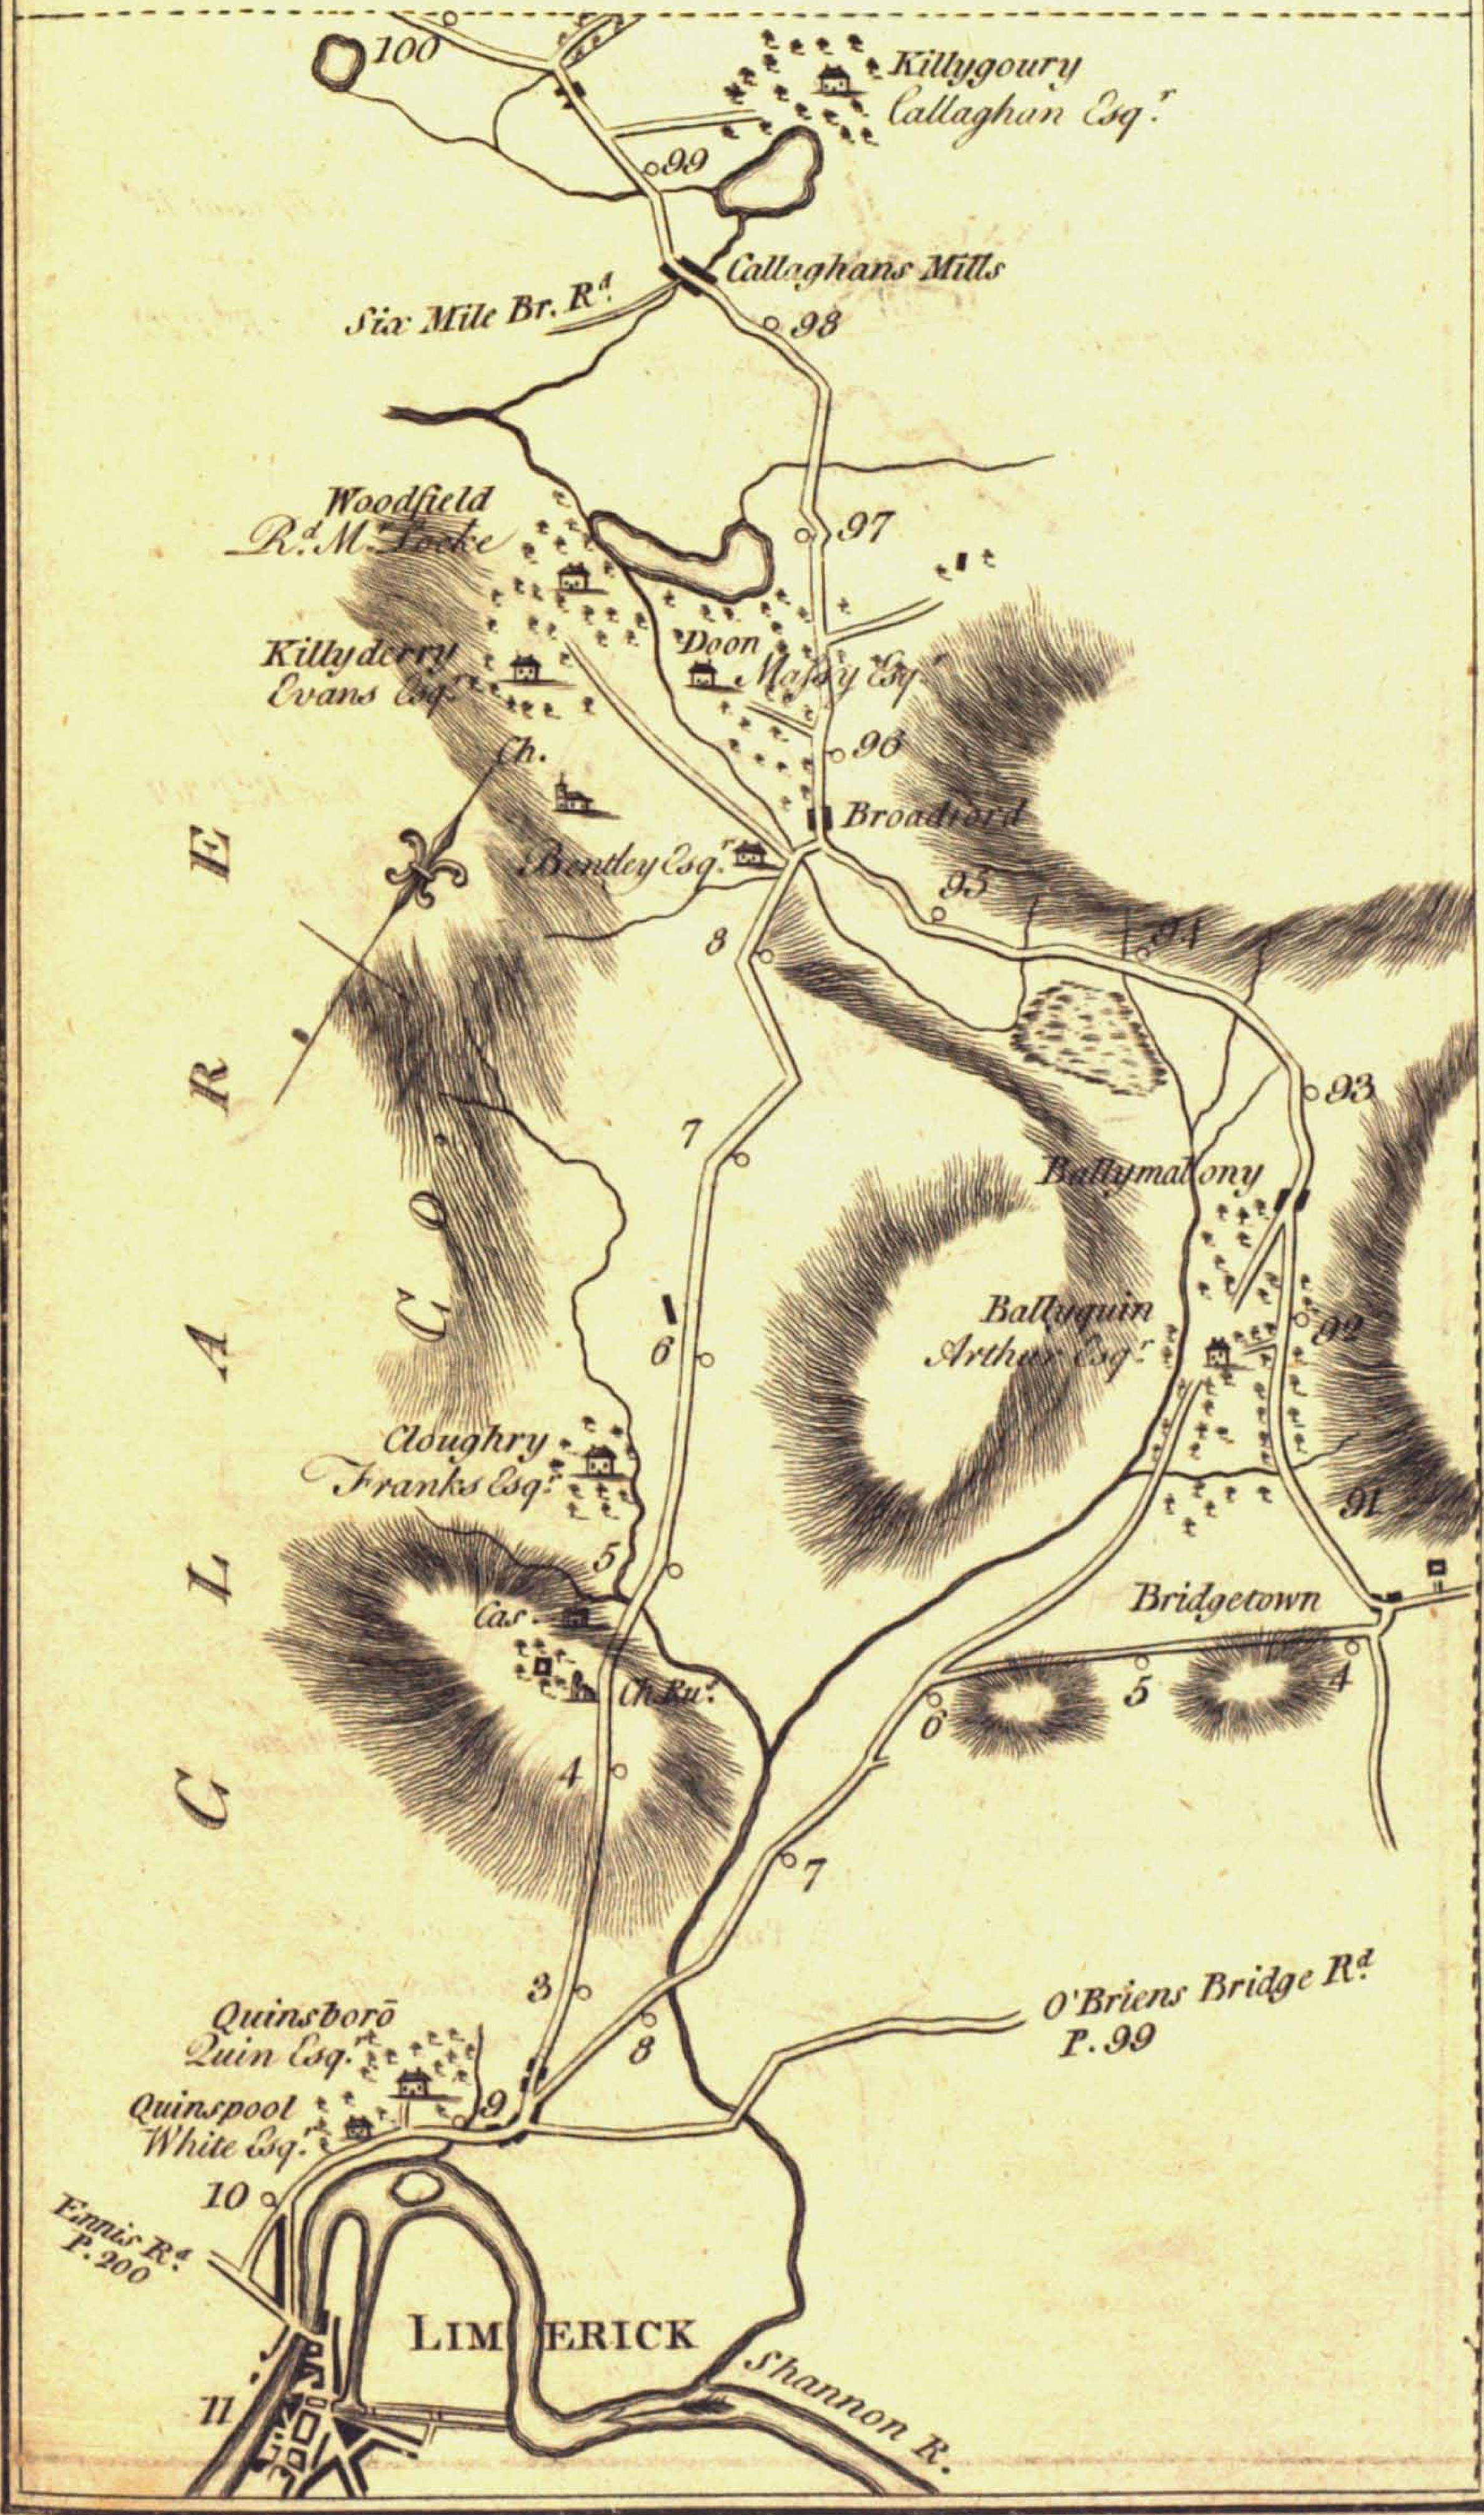

Only one portion of the estate, the townland of Drummod, extends into the old red sandstone formation, and even this is enriched by drift.

In point of picturesque beauty, it will stand comparison with any part of the county. It may be truly called the Lake District, as some of the most considerable lie within its area, among which may be mentioned the beautiful waters of Dergmore Lake, Lockbridget, and Kilgory, Clonlea and Doon Loughs, with very many smaller, besides their connecting rivers and streams, the whole forming a fishing and sporting district that only requires due care in its preservation to be one of the best in Ireland.

From the epitome of the rental here given, it must be apparent to all that this estate is let upon such reasonable terms, tested by the high authority of the Ordnance Valuation, as to offer inducements for investment which rarely present themselves. Adding to the Ordnance Valuation the usual proportion of one-third, the real value of these estates would appear to be £3811 8s, against £1649 1s 10½d, the net rental both of the fee-farm and fee-simple estates.

DESCRIPTIVE PARTICULARS.

The Estate contains about 7847 statute acres, producing a net annual rental of £5961 12 9, all held in fee-simple, and lying compactly together, situate in the barony of Clare, and county of Galway. The Estate is distant about ten miles from the town of Galway, nine miles from Tuam, both Railway Stations. The important and improving town of Headford is situate in the centre of the Estate, in which there is a weekly market and fairs for the sale of cattle, &c, in the months of March, May, July, August, and October. There are several important fairs held in the neighbourhood.

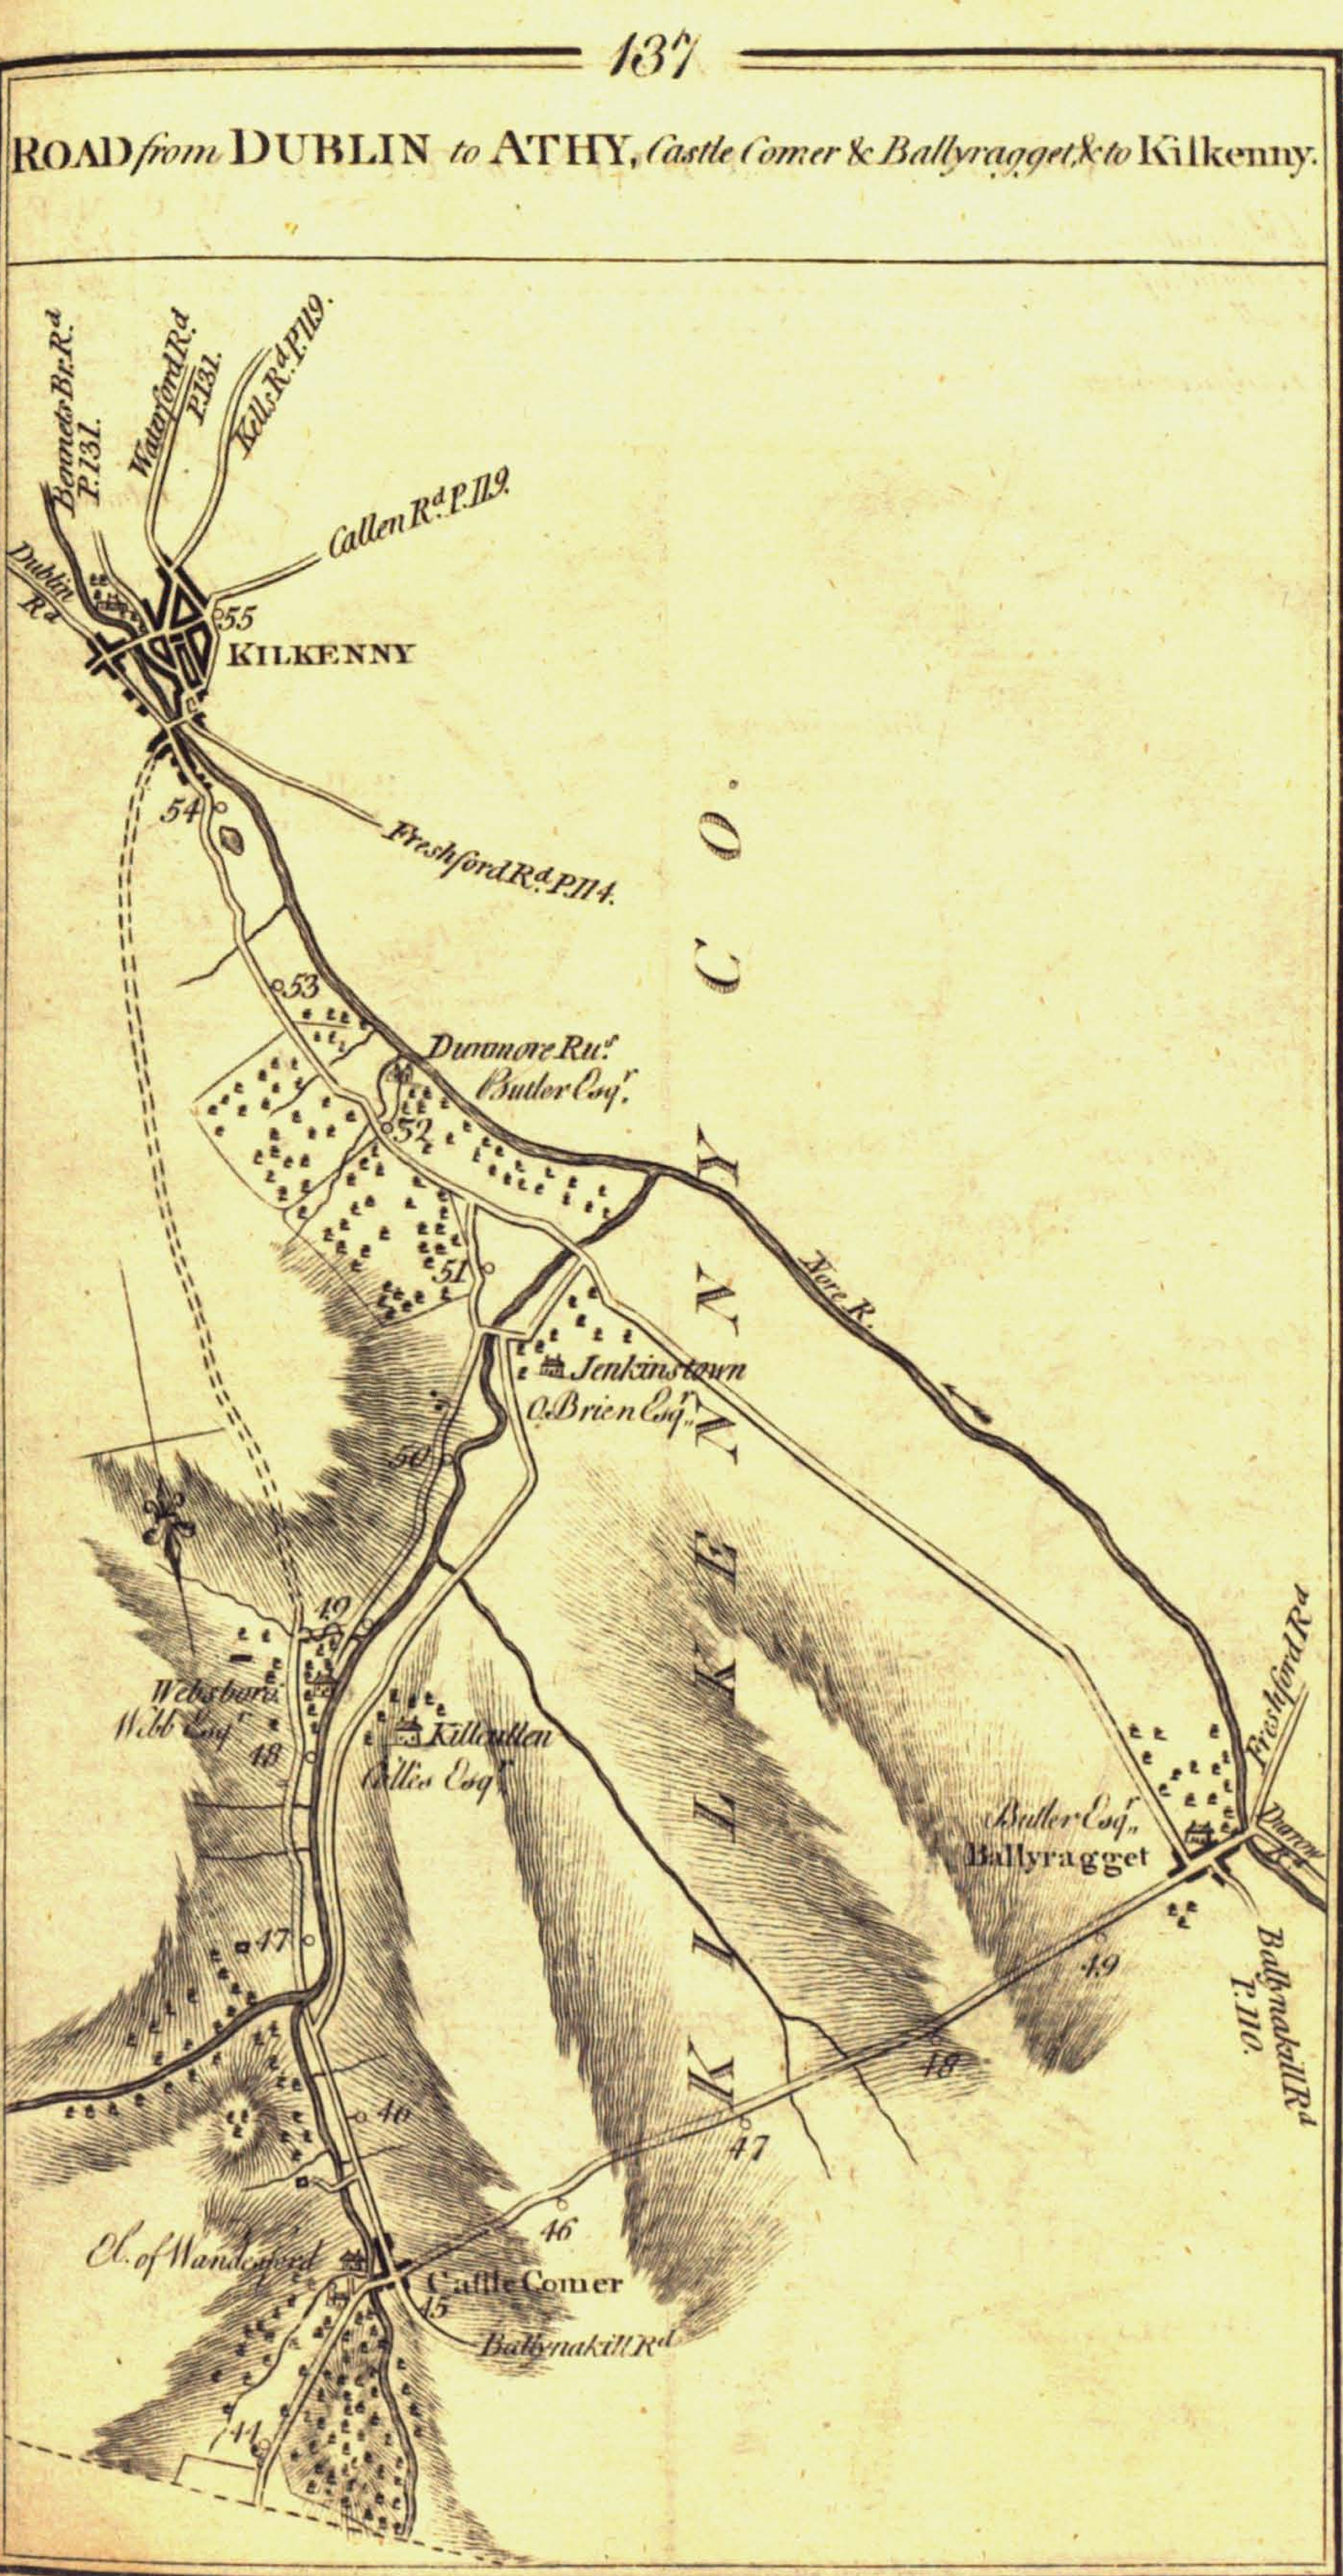

The tenants are respectable, peaceable and industrious. Some have considerable interest in their farms, and are all comfortable, as the lands are let at moderate rents, which are all paid with punctuality. The Royalties are reserved to the owner. He also all game, and the rights of shooting, fishing, and hunting, with clauses in the tenants' leases for the protection of game. A portion of the Estate adjoins Lough Corrib, in which there is excellent salmon and trout fishing.

The game is strictly preserved. The demesne is abundantly stocked with pheasants, and there are plenty of partridge, woodcock, snipe, wild duck, and other wild fowl on the Estate, and the shooting is excellent. The game on the Estate alone would produce £400 or £500 a year. Headford Castle stands on Lot 37, and is one of the finest Residences in the West of Ireland. The demesne is extensive and picturesque, with some fine old timber on it. The plantations on this lot are very valuable.

Proposals for purchase of all or any of the Lots will be received by the Solicitors having carriage, and if considered sufficient will be submitted to the Court for approval.

For Rentals and further particulars apply at the Registrar's Office, Landed Estates Court; to JOHN MORRIS Esq. the Agent, Headford, co Galway; or to

DESCRIPTIVE PARTICULARS.

This estate, which comprises the town and lands of Scariff, otherwise Drewsborough, now called Victoria Park, and the lands of Ballyminogue, and the plots of ground, houses and premises in the town of Scariff, barony of Upper Tulla, and county of Clare, situate within seventeen miles of Ennis, the county town, and fourteen miles of Spancil hill, celebrated for its fairs. It lies also within sixteen of the city of Limerick, seven miles of Killaloe, a station on the Limerick and Castleconnel railway, seven of Tulla, ten of Loughcooter, near Gort, on the borders of Lough Derg, that beautiful and capacious lake of the Shannon, by which steam passage and trade boats ply, thus affording a rapid mode of conveyance to Limerick, Killaloe, Portumna, Ballinasloe, Athlone and Dublin. The owner expended a large sum on Lot 1 in permanent improvements by draining, subsoiling and improving this lot. The demesne of Drewsborough consists of good arable pasture and meadow land, and is interspersed with a variety of valuable trees judiciously planted. It adjoins Lough O'Grady, a handsome lake, from which Scariff river, forming the boundary between it and the the town, flows into Lough Derg. The fishing on this river and the adjoining lakes is excellent, and the mountains and covers in the immediate vicinity are well stocked with game of all sorts, and the shooting first-class.

The mansion-house is of a superior description, with suitable and well laid-out offices, garden, orchard and pleasure ground attached, and commands a good view of the surrounding scenery. The Shannon Commissioners some years ago expended a large sum on the East side of Drewsborough in the construction of a quay, by which Scariff and the surrounding properties are materially improved in their connection with the River Shannon.

The town of Scariff, in which monthly fairs of very great importance are held, is a post town. It is peculiarly well situated as regards its general local circumstances, as well as in its relations with other towns, and always commands a considerable share of business. It contains several well-built and handsome houses, including the Constabulary Barrack, Post Office, and the Hotel. There is also in the town a splendid site for an extensive and solid flour mill, with first-class water power from the Scariff river; the former one, which paid a rent of £100 a year to the owner, was lately burned down.

The lands of Ballyminogue, adjoining the town, consist of good arable and pasture. Springfield House, the handsome and commodious residence of the Rev Thomas O'Malley, is on this portion of the estate. On the whole the town and lands are very eligibly circumstanced, and there seldom has occurred a better opportunity for a safe and beneficial investment than is now presented in the sale of this property.

Proposals will be received by the Solicitor having carriage of Sale, or by Owner, at his residence, 9 Leinster square, Rathmines, in the county of Dublin, for one or all of said lots, up to the 8th day of May, 1869, and submitted to the Judge for his approval.
